- (b) (fixed remuneration): levels of fixed remuneration for non-executive directors should reflect the time commitment and responsibilities of the role;

- (c) (performance based remuneration): Non-Executive Directors should not receive performance-based remuneration as it may lead to bias in their decision-making and compromise their objectivity;
- (d) (equity based remuneration): it is generally acceptable for Non-Executive Directors to receive securities as part of their remuneration to align their interests with the interests of other holders. However, Non-Executive Directors generally should not receive options with performance hurdles attached or performance rights as part of their remuneration as it may lead to bias in their decision-making and compromise their objectivity
- (e) (termination payments): Non-Executive Directors should not be provided with retirement benefits other than superannuation.

These targets should be aligned to the Company's short, medium and longer-term performance objectives and should be consistent with the Company's purpose, strategic goals and Statement of Values. Discretion should be retained where appropriate to prevent performance-based remuneration rewarding conduct that is contrary to the Company's values or risk appetite;
- (d) (equity based remuneration): well-designed equity-based remuneration, including options or performance rights, can be an effective form of remuneration, especially when linked to hurdles that are aligned to the Company's short, medium and longer-term performance objectives. Care needs to be taken not to lead to short termism or the taking of undue risks; and
- (e) (termination payments): termination payments if any, should be agreed in advance and the agreement should clearly address what will happen in the case of early termination. There should be no payment for removal for misconduct.
